SGO is committed to educating and assisting like minded organizations to promote education in particular among rural

townships,
less fortunate
learners.

We are passionate to reduce the School dropout rate by assisting our poor communities. School Stationerhampers Project has many lives touching stories. We are working very hard to secure sponsorship towards the nutrition program for the less fortunate learners and making appeal for new partners to join us for this great cause.

Monthly food hampers for single mom and widows is supported by Crossmoor transport, Container Ministry and others

A very big thanks to all our supporters. God Bless you!
